Funeral Benefits Application (DS12960)

For AISH and ADAP clients. Fillable working copy, with a plain-language guide

READ THIS FIRST

This is a fillable working copy that captures everything the official DS12960 asks. It opens and fills on any phone, tablet or computer. It is NOT an official Government of Alberta form.

The official form is at cfr.forms.gov.ab.ca/form/DS12960. It only opens in Adobe Acrobat Reader on a computer.

Before you send this copy, ask the Health and Funeral Benefits Unit: "Will you accept this working copy of DS12960?" If they say no, ask them to email or mail you the official form.

This copy was rebuilt from the current official version, DS12960 Rev. 2026-07, downloaded from the government site on 18 October 2026.

THE SIX MONTH RULE

If the funeral has already happened and been paid for, you may still be able to get the money back. The form says: "Reimbursements may be provided for up to six months after the expenses were incurred, if all eligibility requirements would have been met."

Six months from when the expense was incurred. Not from the death, and not from when you first heard the benefit existed.

You will be asked to explain why the benefit was not requested in advance, and to send copies of paid invoices.

What the benefit pays, in the government's own figures

These are the rates printed on the Rev. 2026-07 form. Quoted word for word:

Funeral expenses	"such as professional services fees for cremation or burial preparations and a casket and/or an urn (actual cost up to $4,601)"
Embalming	"when determined to be necessary by a licensed embalmer (actual cost up to $781)"
A funeral ceremony	"(actual cost up to $1,041)"
Transportation	"A transportation rate of $1.13 per kilometer, for required transportation, after 20 kilometers outside of the funeral service provider's municipality"
Cemetery plot or alternate resting place	"A cemetery plot (at actual cost) or an alternate resting place (actual cost up to $3,122)"
Cemetery plot discount	"Note: In accordance with section 12 of the Cemeteries Act, cemetery plots are paid at 50% of the amount that would ordinarily be charged"
More than the maximum	"In exceptional circumstances an additional amount, above the listed rates, may be requested where the maximum benefit rate is insufficient." That request is a separate form, EMP13237.

There is a second kind of request on the same form: transportation of the person to another province or territory within Canada for burial or cremation, at "actual reasonable cost to prepare and transport the deceased individual." You pick one or the other, not both.

Who is allowed to apply, in order

The form lists eleven, and says the list is in order of priority. If you are not the highest priority person, you can still apply, but the form asks you to explain why.

- 1. Executor or personal representative designated in the will
- 2. Spouse or partner
- 3. Adult child
- 4. Parent
- 5. Guardian
- 6. Adult grandchild
- 7. Adult brother or sister
- 8. Adult nephew or niece
- 9. Adult next of kin
- 10. Public Trustee
- 11. Adult person with a relationship with the deceased individual

Six places you may be sent first

Section 4 asks about other sources. For six of them, the form says the benefit "should first be requested" elsewhere. If that other program says no, keep the refusal: "If any of the programs listed in lines D to I have denied the request for funeral benefits, please provide proof of denial."

Public Trustee client	Request through the Public Trustee's office first.
Canadian Armed Forces veteran	Request from the Last Post Fund first.
Death from a workplace injury	Request from the Workers' Compensation Board first.
Death in a motor vehicle accident	Request through the Automobile Accident Insurance Benefits Regulation first.
Victim of a violent crime that caused the death	Request through the Alberta Victims of Crime program first.
Child in care under the Child, Youth and Family Enhancement Act	Request from that program first.

Where the money goes

The form gives three choices: payment to service providers, payment to the applicant, or reimbursement to the applicant. Paying the applicant directly is limited. In the form's words: "I am the spouse/partner of the deceased or the parent of a deceased dependent child and I am requesting to receive the payment directly. By choosing this option, I agree to make payments to all service providers."

The form also notes: "Cemetery fees are generally paid directly to the cemetery and should be invoiced separately from funeral service provider fees."

You can appeal a refusal

> I understand I have the right to appeal a decision of denial within 30 days of being informed of the decision.

That is from the declaration you sign on the form itself. The appeal form is AAS13358.
