Canada Revenue Agency Consent (DS2318A)

Fillable working copy, with a plain-language guide

READ THIS FIRST

This is a fillable working copy that captures everything the official DS2318A asks. It opens and fills on any phone, tablet or computer. It is NOT an official Government of Alberta form.

The official form is at cfr.forms.gov.ab.ca/form/DS2318A. It only opens in Adobe Acrobat Reader on a computer.

Before you send this copy, ask your worker: "Will you accept this working copy of DS2318A?" If they say no, ask them to email or mail you the official form.

This copy was rebuilt from the current official version, DS2318A Rev. 2026-07, downloaded from the government site on 18 October 2026.

What this form is for

This form lets the Canada Revenue Agency send your tax information straight to Assisted Living and Social Services, so that AISH, ADAP or Income Support can check your income without asking you for paperwork each year.

> This consent form allows Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) to release income tax directly to Assisted Living and Social Services. AISH and ADAP requires both clients and their spouse/cohabiting partner to provide consent allowing AISH and ADAP to obtain tax information directly from CRA.

One form is needed for each person. If you have a cohabiting partner, they fill in their own.

Two things to know before you sign

- The consent does not expire at the end of the year. In the form's own words, it "is valid for the taxation years prior to the year of signature, the current taxation year and for each subsequent taxation years for which assistance is requested."
- If a legal representative signs for you, the form says to send a copy of the legal document that names them, if that has not already been sent.

Where this came from

Rebuilt by ADSB from the official DS2318A Rev. 2026-07, downloaded from https://cfr.forms.gov.ab.ca/form/DS2318A on 18 October 2026. The consent paragraphs and the privacy wording are the government's own, quoted word for word. The guide pages are ADSB's.

> This is not an official Government of Alberta form. ADSB is not the Government of Alberta. Nothing here is legal advice.
