Consent to Third Party Payment (DS5511)

Fillable working copy, with a plain-language guide

READ THIS FIRST

This is a fillable working copy that captures everything the official DS5511 asks. It opens and fills on any phone, tablet or computer. It is NOT an official Government of Alberta form.

The official form is at cfr.forms.gov.ab.ca/form/DS5511. It only opens in Adobe Acrobat Reader on a computer.

Before you send this copy, ask your worker: "Will you accept this working copy of DS5511?" If they say no, ask them to email or mail you the official form.

This copy was rebuilt from the current official version, DS5511 Rev. 2026-07, downloaded from the government site on 18 October 2026.

What this form is for

This form lets part of your money be paid straight to somebody else instead of to you. Most often that is rent to a landlord or a bill to a utility, but it can be a vendor for an approved benefit as well. It can be a one time payment or an ongoing one.

> Section 6 of the AISH Act allows AISH and ADAP to pay a third party directly on your behalf. A third party payment can be used to pay a vendor for an approved personal benefit or to redirect a portion of your AISH or ADAP allowance to a specific person/organization (e.g. rent payment). A third party payment can be made one time or as an ongoing payment. You can withdraw this consent at any time by doing so in writing. Please return the completed form to your worker.

Four things worth knowing

- You can cancel it. The form says, in its own words, "You can withdraw this consent at any time by doing so in writing." Put it in writing, keep a copy, and note the date.
- There is a time limit. The expiry date field on the form is capped: "Third Party Consent Expiry Date (month, day, year) (maximum 5 years)". If nobody fills that in, ask for it to be filled in.
- If you are on Income Support instead, the legal authority is different. The form switches to section 17 of the Income and Employment Supports Act.
- The official form carries the marking "File Section 4" in its corner. That is the government's own filing label, not something you fill in.

Before you send this in

- Ask your worker whether they will accept this working copy. If they will not, ask them to email or mail you the official DS5511.
- Fill in the expiry date yourself. The maximum is five years. An open ended consent is harder to undo later.
- Keep a copy, and note the date you sent it and who you sent it to.
- If you want to cancel the arrangement later, put it in writing to your worker and keep a copy of that too.

Where this came from

Rebuilt by ADSB from the official DS5511 Rev. 2026-07, downloaded from https://cfr.forms.gov.ab.ca/form/DS5511 on 18 October 2026. The legal and privacy wording is the government's own, quoted word for word. The guide pages are ADSB's.
