

Transition to Adulthood Pathway

The transition from childhood to adulthood is a significant change in a child's life. For youth with disabilities this transition may present unique challenges and require extra planning.

Transition activities for the FSCD worker and family to consider

by Age 9	by Age 10	by Age 11-12	by Age 13-14	by Age 15	by Age 16	by Age 17	Age 18	Age 18.5
• Discuss the transition to adulthood process • Discuss the Transition to Adulthood Pathway • Discuss visioning for the child's future	• Discuss Estate Planning (see Transition Resource List)	• Discuss the vision • Discuss guardianship considerations • Discuss post-secondary education/employment options • Review the Transition Resource List	• Review vision • Review post-secondary education/employment options available • Discuss volunteer opportunities	• Review vision • Discuss post-secondary education/employment options • Review the Transition Resource list and discuss resources relevant to the youth and family • Discuss plans/ work to do in preparation for transition planning to next year's transition planning meeting	• Plan for Transition to Adulthood Planning Meeting • Develop Transition to Adulthood Plan • Pursue volunteer/employment opportunities • Ensure child has: Social Insurance Number/Bank Account/ Picture ID • Discuss plans/ work to do prior to next year's transition case conference • Arrange for connection with adult disability supports where applicable	• Plan for Transition to Adulthood Planning Meeting • Review/revise vision • Complete AISH application by age 17.5 years where applicable • Make guardianship or trusteeship where applicable • Review confirmation of eligibility for adult programs • Establish contingency strategies "Plan B" if planned transition outcomes become delayed.	• Identify successes and challenges in the transition process.	• Transition to Adulthood follow up meeting

Encourage and support the development of meaningful interpersonal relationships.