Filed: April 23, 2026

For information only: Made by the Lieutenant Governor in Council (O.C. 127/2026) on April 23, 2026 pursuant to section 10 of the Referendum Act.

1 The Referendum (General) Regulation (AR 252/2020) is amended by this Regulation.

2 Section 1 is amended

(a) in subsection (1)

(i) by adding the following after clause (a):

- (a.1) “proponent” means a proponent as defined in the Citizen Initiative Act;

(ii) in clause (d) by striking out “section 6.2(1)” and substituting “section 6.2(1) or (3) or 6.3(5)(b)”;

(b) by adding the following after subsection (1):

(1.1) For the purposes of this Regulation, a political party has official party status if the political party

- (a) is represented in the Legislative Assembly of Alberta by at least 4 members of the Legislative Assembly on the earlier of the following dates:
- (i) the date a referendum is ordered by the Lieutenant Governor in Council;
 - (ii) the date immediately preceding the date on which the writs are issued for the general election, in the case of a referendum to be held in conjunction with a general election under the Election Act,

and

- (b) received at least 5% of the popular vote in the most recent general election under the Election Act.

3 The following is added after section 6:

Application of Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act

6.01 The Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act does not apply to a registered party, constituency association or member of the Legislative Assembly with regard to a referendum.

4 Section 6.2 is repealed and the following is substituted:

Appointment of scrutineers

6.2(1) At any time after the Lieutenant Governor in Council orders that a referendum be held, each political party with official party status and the proponent, if the referendum is the result of a successful initiative petition under the Citizen Initiative Act, may each, in writing, appoint,

- (a) in the case of a referendum to be held in conjunction with a general election under the Election Act or as a stand-alone referendum,
 - (i) one scrutineer for each advance voting place for each day of an advance vote and for each voting place on referendum voting day, for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting,
 - (A) the matching under section 43(2)(a) of the Election Act of an elector's identification with the elector's name on the list of electors and the address on the elector's identification with the elector's address as shown on the list of electors,
 - (B) the matching under section 100.1 of the Election Act of the name and residential address on an identification with the name and residential address on the voting record, and
 - (C) the issuing of referendum ballots to electors,
 - (ii) one additional scrutineer for each advance voting place for each day of an advance vote and for each voting place on referendum voting day, for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting, the signing of declarations under sections 100.2 and 100.4 of the Election Act, and
 - (iii) one additional scrutineer for each voting station at each voting place on referendum voting day for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting, the counting of ballots,
- or
- (b) in the case of a referendum to be held in conjunction with general elections under the Local Authorities Election Act,
 - (i) one scrutineer for each advance voting station for each day of an advance vote and for each voting station on referendum voting day, for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting, the determination under section 53(1)(a) of the Local Authorities Election Act of whether a person is permitted to vote,
 - (ii) one additional scrutineer for each advance voting station for each day of an advance vote and for each voting station on referendum voting day, for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting, the determination under section 53(1)(b) and, if applicable, (4) of the Local Authorities Election Act of whether a person is permitted to vote, and

- (iii) one additional scrutineer for each voting station on referendum voting day for the purpose of observing the counting of votes.

(2) When a political party with official party status or a proponent appoints a scrutineer, the political party or proponent must notify the Chief Electoral Officer in writing of the voting place or voting station in respect of which the scrutineer has been appointed by a date determined by the Chief Electoral Officer that is no later than 8 weeks before referendum voting day.

(3) If a political party with official party status or a proponent does not appoint a scrutineer, or if the Chief Electoral Officer determines that additional scrutineers should be appointed, the Chief Electoral Officer or a returning officer may, in writing, appoint scrutineers for a voting place or voting station, as the case may be, from a list of names submitted under subsection (4) for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting,

- (a) in the case of a referendum to be held in conjunction with a general election under the Election Act or as a stand-alone referendum,
 - (i) the matching under section 43(2)(a) of the Election Act of an elector's identification with the elector's name on the list of electors and the address on the elector's identification with the elector's address as shown on the list of electors,
 - (ii) the matching under section 100.1 of the Election Act of the name and residential address on an identification with the name and residential address on the voting record,
 - (iii) the issuing of referendum ballots to electors,
 - (iv) the signing of declarations under sections 100.2 and 100.4 of the Election Act, and
 - (v) the counting of ballots,

or

- (b) in the case of a referendum to be held in conjunction with general elections under the Local Authorities Election Act,
 - (i) the determination under section 53(1)(a) of the Local Authorities Election Act of whether a person is permitted to vote,
 - (ii) the determination under section 53(1)(b) and, if applicable, (4) of the Local Authorities Election Act of whether a person is permitted to vote, and
 - (iii) the counting of votes.
- (4) A third party registered under section 9.1 of the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act who engages in referendum advertising under section 9.1(2)(d) of that Act may submit, in writing, a list of names to the Chief Electoral Officer from which the Chief Electoral Officer or a returning officer may appoint scrutineers under subsection (3).
- (5) When appointing a scrutineer under subsection (3), the Chief Electoral Officer or returning officer may consider if other scrutineers that have been appointed are for or against each question to be put to the electors in the referendum.
- (6) A person may not be appointed as a scrutineer under subsection (1) or (3) or be included on a list of names submitted under subsection (4) unless the person is an eligible elector.
- (7) A person who has, within the previous 10 years, been issued an administrative penalty or letter of reprimand or been convicted of an offence under the Election Act, Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act, Local Authorities Election Act or Canada Elections Act (Canada) is not eligible to be appointed as a scrutineer under subsection (1) or (3) or to be included on a list of names submitted under subsection (4).
- (8) Each scrutineer appointed under this section is required to,
 - (a) in the case of a referendum held in conjunction with general elections under the Local Authorities Election Act, subscribe to the statement under section 16(2) of that Act, or
 - (b) in any other case, take the prescribed oath of secrecy referred to in section 93(1) of the Election Act.
- (9) A person appointed as a scrutineer must produce the person's appointment to the returning officer, election officer or presiding deputy of the voting place or voting station to which the person's appointment relates before being admitted

- (a) to the voting place or voting station, as the case may be, during voting hours, or
- (b) to the place set for the counting of ballots or votes, as the case may be.

(10) The returning officer, election officer or presiding deputy at a voting place or voting station, as the case may be, may designate the place or places at the voting place or voting station where a scrutineer may observe the conduct of the referendum.

(11) Except as provided in subsection (10) and section 6.21(2) to (4), a person shall not impede a scrutineer from performing the duties of a scrutineer.

Performance of duties

6.21(1) A scrutineer referred to in section 6.2(1)(a)(i) or (ii) or (b)(i) or (ii) may perform their duties in respect of more than one voting place or voting station, as the case may be.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), in the context of a referendum to be held in conjunction with a general election under the Election Act or as a stand-alone referendum, the returning officer or election officer at a voting place shall not permit more than 2 scrutineers for each political party with official party status and 2 scrutineers for the proponent, if applicable, to be present at the same time at a voting place and shall not permit more than one scrutineer for each political party with official party status and one scrutineer for the proponent, if applicable, to be present at the same time

- (a) at a voting station, or
- (b) at the place where declarations are signed under sections 100.2 and 100.4 of the Election Act.

(3) In the context of a referendum to be held in conjunction with general elections under the Local Authorities Election Act, the presiding deputy at a voting station shall not permit more than 2 scrutineers for each political party with official party status and 2 scrutineers for the proponent, if applicable, to be present at the same time at a voting station.

(4) In the context of a referendum to be held in conjunction with a general election under the Election Act or as a stand-alone referendum, the returning officer or election officer at a voting place may permit one scrutineer for each political party with official party status and one scrutineer for the proponent, if applicable, to be present for each voting station at the voting place for the purpose of counting ballots.

5 Section 6.3 is amended

(a) by repealing subsection (5)(b) and substituting the following:

- (b) a political party with official party status, a proponent, the Chief Electoral Officer or the returning officer may appoint a replacement scrutineer in accordance with section 6.2.

(b) by adding the following after subsection (5):

- (6) When a political party with official party status or a proponent appoints a replacement scrutineer, the political party or proponent must immediately notify the Chief Electoral Officer in writing of the voting place or voting station in respect of which the replacement scrutineer has been appointed.

6 The following is added after section 6.3:

Unofficial count

6.4(1) If more than one question is put to the electors in a referendum, the unofficial count for any question that is the result of a successful initiative petition under the Citizen Initiative Act must begin at each voting place or voting station, as the case may be, before the unofficial count for any other question commences at that voting place or voting station.

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer shall publish unofficial results of the counting of the ballots or votes, as the case may be, after the close of voting on referendum voting day as the results are received from returning officers.

(3) Notwithstanding section 111(12) of the Election Act, the unofficial count of the ballots or votes, as the case may be, for a referendum must be completed no later than

- (a) 12 hours after the close of voting on referendum voting day for a referendum in which one or 2 questions are put to the electors,
- (b) 24 hours after the close of voting on referendum voting day for a referendum in which 3 or 4 questions are put to the electors,
- (c) 36 hours after the close of voting on referendum voting day for a referendum in which 5 or 6 questions are put to the electors, and

- (d) 48 hours after the close of voting on referendum voting day for a referendum in which 7 or more questions are put to the electors.

7 The following is added after section 15:

Exceptions to Election Act

15.1(1) Notwithstanding section 92(1) of the Election Act,

- (a) one scrutineer appointed by each political party with official party status and one scrutineer appointed by the proponent, if applicable, may remain in a voting place during voting hours for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting,
 - (i) the matching under section 43(2)(a) of the Election Act of an elector's identification with the elector's name on the list of electors and the address on the elector's identification with the elector's address as shown on the list of electors,
 - (ii) the matching under section 100.1 of the Election Act of the name and residential address on an identification with the name and residential address on the voting record, and
 - (iii) the issuing of referendum ballots to electors,
- (b) one additional scrutineer appointed by each political party with official party status and one additional scrutineer appointed by the proponent, if applicable, may remain in a voting place during voting hours for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting, the signing of declarations under sections 100.2 and 100.4 of the Election Act,
- (c) one additional scrutineer appointed by each political party with official party status and one additional scrutineer appointed by the proponent, if applicable, may remain in a voting place during voting hours for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting, the counting of ballots, and
- (d) one or more scrutineers appointed under section 6.2(3) may remain in a voting place during voting hours.

(2) Notwithstanding sections 108(2) and 111(8) of the Election Act, for the purposes of a referendum, a reference to the name of a candidate on whose behalf an objection was made in those sections shall be read as a reference to

- (a) the name of the political party or proponent on whose behalf an objection was made, or
- (b) the title of the Chief Electoral Officer or returning officer who appointed the scrutineer.

(3) Notwithstanding section 111(11) of the Election Act, the following may be present during the unofficial count of the ballots if they have taken the prescribed oath of secrecy referred to in section 93(1) of that Act:

- (a) one scrutineer appointed by each political party with official party status for each voting station at a voting place;
- (b) one scrutineer appointed by the proponent, if applicable, for each voting station at a voting place;
- (c) one or more scrutineers appointed under section 6.2(3), as determined by the Chief Electoral Officer.

(4) Notwithstanding section 122(1) of the Election Act, the following persons may remain at a mobile voting station during voting hours:

- (a) one scrutineer appointed by each political party with official party status and one scrutineer appointed by the proponent, if applicable, for the purpose of observing, in a manner that does not compromise the secrecy of voting,
 - (i) the matching under section 43(2)(a) of the Election Act of an elector's identification with the elector's name on the list of electors and the address on the elector's identification with the elector's address as shown on the list of electors,
 - (ii) the matching under section 100.1 of the Election Act of the name and residential address on an identification with the name and residential address on the voting record,
 - (iii) the issuing of referendum ballots to electors, and
 - (iv) the signing of declarations under sections 100.2 and 100.4 of the Election Act;
- (b) one or more scrutineers appointed under section 6.2(3), as determined by the Chief Electoral Officer.

(5) Notwithstanding section 162 of the Election Act, the provision of food or beverages to a scrutineer appointed under section 6.2 is deemed not to be a contravention of section 162(1) of that Act.

8 Section 23(1) is repealed.

11.1(1) If an individual applies under section 6 for the issuance of an interim professional certificate and the Registrar refuses the issuance, the Registrar may consider the application to be an application for the issuance of a conditional teacher certificate made by the individual under this subsection.

(2) An individual may, in the form and manner required by the Minister, apply to the Registrar for

- (a) the reissuance of a conditional teacher certificate, or
- (b) an extension of the term of a conditional teacher certificate.

(3) If an application is considered to be made under subsection (1) or is made under subsection (2) and the Registrar makes a request of the applicant in writing, the Registrar may consider the application to have expired if the applicant does not respond appropriately to the request within one year following the initial date of the application.

Requirements for conditional teacher certificate

11.2(1) The Registrar may issue a conditional teacher certificate to an applicant

- (a) to whom the Registrar has refused under section 18(1)(a)(i) or (iv) to issue an interim professional certificate,

- (b) who holds a degree acceptable to the Minister in education or in any other field from an institution outside Canada approved by the Minister, if the degree
 - (i) includes or is supplemented with a basic professional teacher preparation program acceptable to the Minister, and
 - (ii) meets the requirements for professional teacher certification in the jurisdiction where the degree or the basic professional teacher preparation program was completed,
- (c) who has completed course work, prescribed by the Registrar, respecting the Teaching Quality Standard and the code of professional conduct, and
- (d) who is proficient, in the Registrar's opinion, in at least one of the official languages of Canada.

(2) An application for a conditional teacher certificate must be accompanied by

- (a) the applicant's written declaration that the applicant has the ability to meet the Teaching Quality Standard, and
- (b) proof satisfactory to the Registrar that
 - (i) the applicant holds, or once held, a teaching authority from the jurisdiction where the applicant initially completed a basic professional teacher preparation program, and
 - (ii) the teaching authority has not been suspended or cancelled,

and

- (c) any other proof that the Registrar requires.

(3) The Registrar may issue a conditional teacher certificate only to a Canadian citizen or an individual lawfully permitted to work in Canada.

(4) The Registrar may attach to a conditional teacher certificate

- (a) the requirement to complete the practicums and course work that the Registrar considers appropriate, and
- (b) any other terms and conditions that the Registrar considers appropriate.

Issuance of interim professional certificate
to conditional teacher certificate holder

11.3(1) Notwithstanding sections 6 and 7, the Registrar may issue an interim professional certificate to a teacher who holds a conditional teacher certificate if the Registrar is satisfied that the teacher meets

- (a) the requirements for an interim professional certificate set out in section 7(3)(a) and (5),
- (b) the requirement, if any, to complete the practicums and course work that the Registrar considers appropriate attached to the conditional teacher certificate under section 11.2(4)(a), and
- (c) the other terms and conditions, if any, attached to the conditional teacher certificate under section 11.2(4)(b).

(2) A teacher to whom an interim professional certificate is issued under subsection (1) is considered to have academic qualifications equivalent to the requirements of a Bachelor of Education degree.

Term of conditional teacher certificate

11.4(1) Unless an extension is granted under section 11.5, a conditional teacher certificate expires on the earlier of

- (a) August 31 of the 3rd year following the year in which it is issued, or
- (b) a date prescribed by the Registrar at the time it is issued.

(2) The issuance of an interim professional certificate to a teacher cancels the teacher's conditional teacher certificate.

Reissuance or extension of conditional teacher certificate

11.5(1) Where a teacher's conditional teacher certificate has expired or is about to expire, an officer may recommend to the Registrar that the conditional teacher certificate be reissued or that the term of the conditional teacher certificate be extended.

(2) The Registrar may reissue a conditional teacher certificate or extend the term of a conditional teacher certificate only if the application is accompanied by

- (a) a statement from the officer who made the recommendation under subsection (1) indicating that the officer is satisfied that the applicant has the ability to meet the Teaching Quality Standard, and
- (b) proof satisfactory to the Registrar of the applicant's progress toward meeting

- (i) the requirement, if any, to complete the practicums and course work that the Registrar considers appropriate attached to the conditional teacher certificate under section 11.2(4)(a), and
- (ii) the other terms and conditions, if any, attached to the conditional teacher certificate under section 11.2(4)(b).

(3) A conditional teacher certificate may be reissued or its term may be extended to August 31 of the 3rd year following the year in which it was reissued or extended.

(4) A conditional teacher certificate may be reissued or its term may be extended as many times as the Registrar considers appropriate.

- (a) the issuance or reissuance of a developmental teacher certificate, or
- (b) an extension of the term of a developmental teacher certificate.

(2) If an application is made under subsection (1) and the Registrar makes a request of the applicant in writing, the Registrar may consider the application to have expired if the applicant does not respond appropriately to the request within one year following the initial date of the application.

Requirements for developmental teacher certificate

11.7(1) The Registrar may issue a developmental teacher certificate to an applicant who

- (a) is, in the Registrar's opinion, enrolled in the final year of a Bachelor of Education degree program,
- (b) has completed, at an institution approved by the Minister, practicums acceptable to the Registrar,
- (c) has completed course work, prescribed by the Registrar, respecting the Teaching Quality Standard and the code of professional conduct, and
- (d) is proficient, in the Registrar's opinion, in at least one of the official languages of Canada.

- (2) An application for a developmental teacher certificate must be accompanied by
- (a) the applicant's written declaration that the applicant has the ability to meet the Teaching Quality Standard,
 - (b) a written statement from a designated officer of an institution in Alberta that is approved by the Minister and that offers a basic professional teacher preparation program, indicating that the applicant is enrolled to complete a Bachelor of Education degree,
 - (c) an official transcript of the applicant's academic record sent directly to the Registrar from the institution at which the applicant is enrolled to complete a Bachelor of Education degree, and
 - (d) any other proof that the Registrar requires.
- (3) The Registrar may issue a developmental teacher certificate only to a Canadian citizen or an individual lawfully permitted to work in Canada.
- (4) The Registrar may attach to a developmental teacher certificate
- (a) the requirement to complete the practicums and course work that the Registrar considers appropriate, and
 - (b) any other terms and conditions that the Registrar considers appropriate.

Issuance of interim professional certificate
to developmental teacher certificate holder

11.8 Notwithstanding sections 6 and 7, the Registrar may issue an interim professional certificate to a teacher who holds a developmental teacher certificate if the Registrar is satisfied that the teacher meets

- (a) the requirements for an interim professional certificate set out in section 7(1)(a)(i), (3) and (5),
- (b) the requirement, if any, to complete the practicums and course work that the Registrar considers appropriate attached to the developmental teacher certificate under section 11.7(4)(a), and
- (c) the other terms and conditions, if any, attached to the developmental teacher certificate under section 11.7(4)(b).

Term of developmental teacher certificate

11.9(1) Unless an extension is granted under section 11.91, a developmental teacher certificate expires on the earlier of

- (a) one year from the date on which it is issued, or
- (b) a date prescribed by the Registrar at the time it is issued.

(2) The issuance of an interim professional certificate to a teacher cancels the teacher's developmental teacher certificate.

Reissuance or extension of developmental teacher certificate

11.91(1) Where a teacher's developmental teacher certificate has expired or is about to expire, an officer may recommend to the Registrar that the developmental teacher certificate be reissued or that the term of the developmental teacher certificate be extended.

(2) The Registrar may reissue a developmental teacher certificate or extend the term of a developmental teacher certificate only if the application is accompanied by

- (a) a statement from the officer who made the recommendation under subsection (1) indicating that the officer is satisfied that the applicant has the ability to meet the Teaching Quality Standard,
- (b) proof satisfactory to the Registrar of the applicant's progress toward completing the requirements of a Bachelor of Education degree, and
- (c) proof satisfactory to the Registrar of the applicant's progress toward meeting
 - (i) the requirement, if any, to complete the practicums and course work that the Registrar considers appropriate attached to the developmental teacher certificate under section 11.7(4)(a), and
 - (ii) the other terms and conditions, if any, attached to the developmental teacher certificate under section 11.7(4)(b).

(3) A developmental teacher certificate may be reissued or its term may be extended only once and for a maximum of 120 days.

APPLICATIONS AND APPEALS (MINISTERIAL)
AMENDMENT REGULATION

Filed: April 29, 2026

For information only: Made by the Minister of Assisted Living and Social Services (M.O. 1/2026) on April 27, 2026 pursuant to section 12(2) of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped Act.

1 The Applications and Appeals (Ministerial) Regulation (AR 89/2007) is amended by this Regulation.

2 Section 2(2) is repealed and the following is substituted:

(2) In the case of an application for reinstatement of a benefit, a director may exempt an applicant from the application of section 3(2)(a)(i) or 4(2)(a)(i), as applicable, of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation if, within the previous 2 years, the applicant ceased to meet an eligibility requirement to receive the benefit other than the requirement to have a severe disability that permanently prevents employment or a severe disability that substantially impedes employment, as applicable.

3 Section 4 is amended

- (a) by striking out “10(2)” and substituting “10.1(1)”;
(b) in clauses (a) and (f) by striking out “his or her” and substituting “the appellant’s”.

4 Section 6 is repealed and the following is substituted:

Decisions exempt from appeal

- 6 The following decisions of a director are exempt from appeal:

- (a) a decision under section 7(4) of the Act respecting whether to exempt a person from the requirement to repay an amount or value of a benefit;
- (b) a decision under section 9(4) of the Act to take action to collect a debt due to the Government;
- (c) a decision under section 2(4) of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation respecting whether to exempt a person from the application of section 2(2)(d) of that Regulation;
- (d) a decision under section 2(8) of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation to require repayment of a personal benefit;
- (e) a decision under section 3(1)(a) of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation respecting whether a person has a severe disability that permanently prevents employment, unless the Minister has specified the decision under section 10(2)(e) of the Act as a type of decision respecting which an appeal panel may hear appeals;
- (f) a decision under section 8(5) of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation respecting whether an applicant or client refuses a transfer to a continuing care home or a discharge from the hospital to the community;
- (g) a decision under section 13(6) of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation respecting whether to exempt a person from the application of section 13(5) of that Regulation;
- (h) a decision under section 15(1)(b)(i) of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation to refuse, suspend, vary or discontinue a benefit;
- (i) a decision under section 20(2) of the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation to deduct an amount or value of a benefit that the client must repay under section 7 of the Act or a debt due to the Government by the client;
- (j) a decision under section 6(5) of Schedule 1 to the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation to apply income to, or prorate income over, a different or longer period;

- (k) a decision under section 7(1)(a) or (b) of Schedule 3 to the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped General Regulation to provide a personal benefit.

5 Section 11 is amended by striking out “April 30, 2027” and substituting “April 30, 2030”.

6 This Regulation comes into force on the coming into force of section 6(16) of the Financial Statutes Amendment Act, 2025 (No. 2).

Alberta Regulation 88/2026

Responsible Energy Development Act

ALBERTA ENERGY REGULATOR RULES OF PRACTICE AMENDMENT REGULATION

Filed: April 30, 2026

For information only: Made by the Alberta Energy Regulator on February 5, 2026 pursuant to section 61 of the Responsible Energy Development Act.

1 The Alberta Energy Regulator Rules of Practice (AR 99/2013) is amended by this Regulation.

2 Section 4(1) and (2) are repealed and the following is substituted:

Withdrawal of application

4(1) If an applicant wishes to withdraw an application, the applicant shall do the following:

- (a) file a notice of withdrawal of application in writing;
- (b) in the case of a hearing on an application, serve a copy of the notice on the other parties, if any.

(2) If an applicant files a notice of withdrawal of application in accordance with subsection (1), the Regulator shall authorize the withdrawal of the application on any terms that it considers appropriate.

3 Section 6(1) is repealed and the following is substituted:

Form of statement of concern

6(1) A statement of concern filed by a person under section 32 of the Act or under section 6.1 of these Rules must

- (a) advocate either
 - (i) against the approval sought by the applicant, or
 - (ii) in favour of the approval sought by the applicant,
- (b) be in writing, and
- (c) contain the following:
 - (i) in the case of a statement of concern that advocates against the approval sought by the applicant,
 - (A) a concise statement indicating
 - (I) why the person believes that the person may be directly and adversely affected by a decision of the Regulator to issue an approval in respect of the application,
 - (II) the nature of the person's objection to the application, and
 - (III) the outcome of the application that the person advocates,
 - (B) the location of the land, residence or activity of the person in relation to the location of the energy resource activity that is the subject of the application, and
 - (C) the person's contact information;
 - (ii) in the case of a statement of concern that advocates in favour of the approval sought by the applicant,
 - (A) a concise statement indicating
 - (I) why the person believes that the person may be directly and adversely affected by a decision of the Regulator not to issue an approval in respect of the application,
 - (II) the nature of the person's support of the application, including the benefits which the person believes the person may gain if an approval is issued, and

- (III) the outcome of the application that the person advocates,
- (B) the location of the land, residence or activity of the person in relation to the location of the energy resource activity that is the subject of the application, and
- (C) the person's contact information.

4 Section 7 is amended

(a) by repealing clause (b) and substituting the following:

- (b) in the case of a statement of concern filed in respect of the application that advocates against the approval sought by the applicant, whether the objections raised in the statement of concern have been addressed to the Regulator's satisfaction;
- (b.1) in the case of a statement of concern filed in respect of the application that advocates in favour of the approval sought by the applicant, whether the benefits raised in the statement of concern address or mitigate the objections raised in other statements of concern filed in respect of the application;

(b) by adding the following after clause (f):

- (f.1) whether the Crown has requested that a decision on the application be made immediately or on an expedited basis to mitigate an adverse impact to the energy resource activity referred to in the application that may result if the Regulator's decision on the application is delayed in order to conduct a hearing;

5 The following is added after section 9:

Withdrawal of request to participate

9.01(1) If a person wishes to withdraw a request to participate, the person shall

- (a) file a notice of withdrawal of request to participate in writing, and
- (b) serve a copy of the notice on the applicant and the other parties, if any.

(2) If each person whom the Regulator has permitted to participate in a hearing on an application on the grounds that the person may be directly and adversely affected by the Regulator's decision on the application withdraws their request to participate in accordance with subsection (1), the Regulator shall discontinue the hearing and make a decision on the application without conducting or completing the hearing.

(3) For greater certainty, the Regulator shall discontinue a hearing under subsection (2) regardless of whether the Regulator has permitted a person other than a person described in subsection (2) to participate in the hearing.

6 Section 9.1(1) is repealed and the following is substituted:

Nature and scope of participation

9.1(1) If the Regulator permits a person who has submitted a request to participate in a hearing, the Regulator shall specify

- (a) the grounds on which the person's request is granted, and
- (b) the nature and scope of the person's permitted participation, including
 - (i) whether the participant may make representations orally or by means of written submission only,
 - (ii) whether the participant may question witnesses,
 - (iii) the issues for which the participant is allowed to make submissions, representations and argument, and
 - (iv) otherwise defining the nature of the participant's involvement at a hearing.

7 The following is added after section 32.1:

Grounds for participation

32.11 If the Regulator permits a person who has submitted a request to participate in a hearing on a regulatory appeal, the Regulator shall specify the grounds on which the person's request is granted.

8 Section 34.1 is repealed and the following is substituted:

Crown request for reconsideration

34.1 In exercising its discretion under section 42 of the Act, the Regulator shall consider the following in respect of a request by the Crown that the Regulator reconsider a decision:

- (a) whether the reconsideration is requested for the purpose of addressing the impacts, and the means to mitigate the impacts, to Aboriginal peoples;
- (b) in the case of the Regulator's decision to conduct a hearing on an application, whether the reconsideration is requested for a purpose relating to
 - (i) the timeliness of the Regulator's decision making, or
 - (ii) the impact to the energy resource activity referred to in the application that may result if the Regulator's decision on the application is delayed as a result of the Regulator's decision to conduct a hearing on the application.

9 Section 58 is amended

(a) by repealing subsection (1)(c) and substituting the following:

- (c) "participant" means, subject to subsection (1.1), a person or a group or association of persons who is permitted to participate in a hearing for which a notice of hearing is issued or any other proceeding for which the Regulator has decided to conduct binding dispute resolution, but unless otherwise authorized by the Regulator, does not include a person or group or association of persons whose business or activities include the following:
 - (i) trading in or transportation or recovery of any energy resource;
 - (ii) in the case of a person or group or association of persons organized as a non-profit organization, soliciting or receiving contributions for the purpose of carrying out the non-profit organization's objects or purposes;

(b) by adding the following after subsection (1):

(1.1) Despite subsection (1)(c), if a person or group or association of persons organized as a non-profit organization whose business or activities include those described in subsection (1)(c)(ii) is permitted to participate in a hearing or other proceeding on the grounds that the non-profit organization may be directly and adversely affected by the decision of the Regulator, the person or group or association of persons is to be considered a participant for the purposes of this Division.
