Table of Contents

- 1 Definition
- 2 Administration of refunds
- 3 Lapsing of obligation to pay
- 4 General Revenue Fund

Definition

- 1 In this Regulation, “beneficiary” means a child or youth referred to in section 128.1 of the Act.

Administration of refunds

- 2(1) The Trustee Act does not apply to the director in the administration of the refunds held by the director under section 128.1 of the Act.
- (2) The director may expend the refund paid to a beneficiary in any manner the director considers appropriate.
- (3) The director may be a depositor in the Consolidated Cash Investment Trust Fund.
- (4) Interest is payable on refunds not expended before June 1, 2006.
- (5) Commencing June 1, 2006, the annual interest rate is the annual rate of return earned by the Consolidated Cash Investment Trust Fund.
- (6) If the amount of accrued interest at the time that the refund is to be expended is less than $10, interest is not required to be paid.

Lapsing of obligation to pay

- 3 Where the director is unable to expend a refund and interest, if any, in respect of a beneficiary, because the beneficiary cannot be located, the director’s obligation to expend the refund lapses 2 years after the beneficiary attains 18 years of age.

General Revenue Fund

4 Money deposited in the Consolidated Cash Investment Trust Fund under this Regulation, including any accrued interest, that is not expended after having complied with section 3 shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

5 Repealed AR 215/2025 s2.
