

NOTICE OF ABSENCE FROM ALBERTA

Notice of travel — given under section 16(b) of AR 96/2026, not a request

I am giving this notice that I will be temporarily absent from Alberta to travel. I remain ordinarily resident in Alberta and I am not moving away. I am giving this notice in writing so that there is a clear, dated record, and I am asking you to confirm in writing that my benefit continues while I am away.

1. Who this notice is to, and from

To (AISH / ADAP office or worker email):

If you do not know the correct email for your file, call the AISH/ADAP benefit line at 1-833-382-4081 and ask for the email address for your office, or use the address printed on your most recent letter. Do not send to a general provincial inbox if a file-specific one exists.

2. The travel I am giving notice of

I will be temporarily away from Alberta for the dates below. This is a holiday or visit, not a move. My home and my residency in Alberta continue. Section 16(b) requires notice of an absence from Alberta longer than one month, and I am giving that notice here.

Reason for travel (for example: visiting family). You do not have to give detail beyond the general purpose:

Maximum 400 characters.

Where I am going:

3. Medication and health coverage while I am away

My health benefit card only works inside Alberta, so drugs, dental, optical, diabetic supplies and ambulance are not covered while I am away. If I need more of a regular medication than the usual limit to cover the trip, I am asking about that here, before I go.

Any medication supply I need arranged before I leave (or write “none”):

4. What I am asking you to confirm in writing

Please reply in writing to confirm the following. A reply protects both of us by putting the arrangement on record.

NOTICE OF ABSENCE FROM ALBERTA

Notice of travel — given under section 16(b) of AR 96/2026, not a request

- (a) That you have received this notice, and the date you received it.
- (b) That my financial benefit continues while I am temporarily away, as I remain ordinarily resident in Alberta.
- (c) If I take part in employment or employment-support activity, that my absence for this trip is not treated as a reduction in, or a refusal of, that activity.
- (d) If you consider anything further is required of me before or during this trip, what it is, and the provision you say requires it.

The basis for this notice, and your right to travel

A holiday is allowed. The word “vacation” is not a bar anywhere in the regulation. What is written down is a duty to give notice and a discretion to be aware of.

Section 16(b) of AR 96/2026 requires a client to notify a director of an absence from Alberta longer than one month. This notice discharges that duty.

Section 15(1)(b)(iii) says a director “may” refuse, suspend, vary or discontinue a benefit if, in the director’s opinion, a client has temporarily left Alberta. It says “may,” not “must.” Giving notice in advance, staying ordinarily resident, and asking for written confirmation that your benefit continues is how you keep that discretion from being used against a genuine holiday.

Before you send

Keep a copy of this notice with the date you sent it. Ask for a written reply and keep that too. If you send it by email, the sent email is your dated proof. The record that you gave notice is the protection — not the reply itself.
