

Home repairs and adaptations: the SHARP loan and grant

Seniors Home Adaptation and Repair Program (SHARP) | Official form SHARP11230 (2026/07) | Built 1 October 2026

About this form

This is a fillable working copy built by The Alberta Disability System Breakdown. It captures everything the official Seniors Home Adaptation and Repair Program application and agreement (SHARP11230, July 2026) asks, and it opens and fills on any phone, tablet or computer. It is NOT an official Government of Alberta form.

The official version: form SHARP11230 (2026/07), with its information guide, from alberta.ca/seniors-home-adaptation-repair-program, or by calling the Alberta Supports Contact Centre at 1-877-644-9992.

This is not legal advice. Read the guide pages first, then fill in the form pages.

What this program is

SHARP helps seniors pay for repairs and changes that keep them safe and independent in their own home: a new furnace or roof, grab bars, a stair lift, wider doorways, plumbing or windows. It mostly does this with a loan against your home. If your income is low and you can't get the loan, it may give you a grant instead.

You don't make monthly payments on the loan. It is paid back, with interest, when you sell, stop being an owner, or stop living in the home as your main home. You can pay it back early at any time with no penalty, including through your bank's online bill payment.

Apply once for both

You don't apply for the grant separately. You fill in the loan application. If you don't qualify for the loan, the program looks at whether you qualify for the grant. The guide says so, and so does the regulation (AR 107/2016, s.2(5)). Being turned down for the loan is the door to the grant, not the end of the road.

The loan: who can get it

- You are 65 or older (if you are a couple, only one of you needs to be) and a registered owner of the home, as a regular owner (fee simple) or a leaseholder.
- You are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident, and have lived in Alberta for at least three months.
- Your total income, and your spouse or partner's, on line 15000 of your 2025 tax returns, is less than $75,000.
- It is your main home, with home insurance at full replacement value.
- You keep at least 25% equity in the home after the loan is added (see the calculator below).
- The loan is between $500 and $40,000. $40,000 is the most a household can owe at once, not counting interest. Several smaller jobs can be added together to reach $500.

The grant: who can get it

- You own your home but can't get the loan. For example, you lease the land your mobile home sits on, or you don't have enough equity.
- Your 2025 income is below $32,690 for a single senior or $53,800 for a couple.
- You don't need home insurance at full replacement value for the grant.

About the grant: what the program page does not say

There is a cap. The regulation limits the grant to $5,000 a benefit year (1 July to 30 June) and $15,000 in a lifetime, for a senior or a senior couple. (AR 107/2016, s.9.) Neither number appears on the program's pages. Plan which repair matters most before you spend it.

Its income limit is borrowed from another program. The grant uses the Special Needs Assistance "primary item" income limits (AR 107/2016, s.8(1)(c)). Those fell on 1 July 2026, from $34,770 to $32,690 for a single senior and from $56,820 to $53,800 for a couple. So the same cut also narrowed who can get the SHARP grant.

You also need a Seniors Benefit application. The regulation requires a completed application under the Seniors Benefit Act General Regulation before a grant can be given (AR 107/2016, s.8(1)(d)). If you have never applied for the Alberta Seniors Benefit, ask about this when you apply.

What it pays for

Repairs and changes that are essential to the structure, upkeep or energy efficiency of the home, or to the health, safety and mobility of the people living there. Examples include: furnace, hot water tank, roof, windows, doors, plumbing, electrical, foundation, insulation, fence, grab bars, hand rails, ramps, stair lifts, bath lifts, walk-in showers, door widening, and kitchen or bathroom changes.

It does not pay for things that aren't essential, or for products like appliances, furniture and portable devices, or services like cosmetic gardening.

Labour by family or friends is not covered unless they own or run a contracting business. The materials can be covered if you, family or friends do the work.

Timing: work already done counts only if it was finished and paid for within 12 months before SHARP receives your application. The regulation lets the Minister make an exception (AR 107/2016, s.12), so if you are just over, ask.

Check your equity (for the loan)

Use your property tax assessment. "Charges" means everything registered against your title with a dollar value, such as your mortgage and your line of credit limit.

D: ADD B AND C ($)

To get the loan, D must be less than or equal to A. If it isn't and your income is low, you may still get the grant.

Things on your title that must be cleared first

A certificate of lis pendens (pending court action), a reverse mortgage, maintenance enforcement, bankruptcy, foreclosure, or a consumer proposal must be removed before you can get a loan.

Before you sign with a contractor: your right to cancel

If you sign a contract and then SHARP says you can't get a loan, you may be able to cancel it. To keep that right: apply to SHARP within 45 days of signing the contract, and don't let the work start or the materials be delivered until SHARP tells you its decision.

If SHARP says no, you can cancel within 30 days of hearing. You don't have to pay for the work, and the contractor must refund any money you paid within 15 days. If you are approved for the loan, this cancellation right doesn't apply, but the Consumer Protection Act may still protect you.

The contractor's written statement of your cancellation rights has rules set by regulation: the headings, the 45-day and 30-day periods, and any waiver must be in bold type of at least 12 point, and everything else at least 10 point. It must be on the front of the contract, attached to it, or pointed to by a 12-point bold notice on the front (AR 107/2016, s.18 and Schedule). If yours is in small print, it doesn't meet the rule. Be careful about signing any waiver of these rights.

Interest

The rate matches the prime rate and is reset on 1 April and 1 October. It is simple interest, charged only on the loan and not on interest. It starts when the loan is deposited into your account. You get a statement every April and October. Payments go to interest first. Current rate and a calculator: seniors.alberta.ca/sharp-loan-calculator, or call 1-877-644-9992.

If you have a spouse or partner

When an applicant with a loan dies, the loan usually comes due. It can carry on for a surviving spouse or partner who is 55 or older, is a registered owner, lived in the home before the death, and keeps living there.

What to send

- The application and agreement pages that follow, printed and signed by hand. Sign both signature pages: the Canada Revenue Agency consent and the loan agreement. The form says digital or electronic signatures are not accepted. You need a new application each time you apply.
- Your current property tax bill or assessment.
- A receipt or estimate for every repair, from the contractor or store, showing your name and address and theirs, with their phone number.
- For a mobile home: a copy of the bill of sale (or, if you have none, your current mobile home insurance policy), and the legal land description of the land it sits on.
- A VOID cheque, unless you already get the Alberta Seniors Benefit by direct deposit and want the loan to go to the same account.

Where it goes

- Online: seniors.alberta.ca/submit-documents
- Fax: 780-643-2934
- Mail: Seniors Home Adaptation and Repair Program, PO Box 1050 STN Main, Edmonton, Alberta T5J 2M1

What happens after

SHARP reviews your application and may call you or your contractor. You get its decision in writing. If a loan is approved, a caveat (a notice of the government's claim) is registered on your land title, the money is deposited into your bank account, and larger jobs may be paid in instalments. If you sent an estimate rather than a receipt, you'll be asked to send receipts once the work is done and paid for, usually within three to six months.

If you are turned down

Write to the program's Executive Director and explain why you disagree. The guide says so, and the regulation sets out this review: a written request to the Executive Director (AR 107/2016, s.13). The regulation sets no time limit on asking.
