

DO YOU KNOW YOUR MINISTER?

JASON NIXON

President of Treasury Board & Minister of Finance

He designed ADAP. He now controls the budget.

2008

BC HUMAN RIGHTS TRIBUNAL

Fired a sexual-harassment victim two days before Christmas after she reported workplace harassment to him. BC Human Rights Tribunal ruled his company discriminated against her at the urging of the prime contractor.

Harrison v. Nixon Safety Consulting, 2008 BCHRT 462

2011

CRIMINAL CODE PEACE BOND

Signed under s.810(1) of the Criminal Code after a woman feared for her safety. Documented quote: “Somebody just want to shoot the b—ch?” Ordered to stay 500m from her property for one year. Also pleaded guilty to poaching.

Section 810(1) Criminal Code; CBC News

2020

SAID ONE THING. DID ANOTHER.

“We are not selling any Crown or public land — period.” Seventeen days later: the province listed 65 hectares of Crown land at public auction with a starting bid of $440,000.

Calgary Herald, March 5, 2020; Government of Alberta auction records

2025–2026

BUILT ADAP

As Minister of ALSS (May 2025–May 2026): designed the AISH-to-ADAP transition affecting 79,290 Albertans. Passed Bill 12 removing appeal rights. Implemented CDB clawback capturing ~$190M/year in federal disability funds.

Bill 12 (2025); Government of Alberta; CBC News; Hansard

MAY 21, 2026

PROMOTED TO FINANCE

Promoted to President of Treasury Board and Minister of Finance. 41 days before the AISH-to-ADAP transition he designed takes effect on July 1, 2026. He did not leave the file. He was promoted into control of its budget.

CBC News, May 21, 2026; Government of Alberta

Every item above is sourced from public record.

Free to share • Free to print • Free to post